

Dan Evans

President and Chief Executive Officer

Dan Evans was named president and CEO of Indiana University Health (then Clarian Health) in November 2002. IU Health is a statewide system with more than 20 partner hospitals and health centers throughout Indiana. As an academic medical center, it is associated with Indiana University School of Medicine, one of the nation's largest medical schools and the site of thousands of research projects and clinical trials.

Since the organization's inception in 1997, Evans has been active on the IU Health board of directors and served as its chairman from 2000 – 2002. He previously served on and chaired the Methodist Hospital board of directors.

Prior to December 2002, Evans was a partner with Baker & Daniels, a law firm of more than 370 professionals with offices in Indianapolis and as far away as China. He is an Indianapolis native who received his JD from the Indiana University School of Law in 1976.

Evans serves on numerous community, academic and healthcare-related boards and advisory committees, including: Indiana Health Information Exchange, Central Indiana Corporate Partnership, BioCrossroads (Central Indiana Life Sciences Network), the University HealthSystem Consortium, Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis Board of Advisors, and the Indianapolis and Indiana Chambers of Commerce, as well as the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He is chairman of the Indiana Hospital Association.

Evans is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives and is a member of the bars of Indiana, the 7th Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court